Miss Ruth Messick is in Norfolk, having gone thither to take the civil service examination.

W. B. Rowe has again entered the mercantile business, opening up Saturday at his old stand.

Harry G. Waters was in Baltimore last and this week visiting relatives and friends and attending to business matters.

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN—A flock of young (grown) wild black ducks. Information will be paid for by the CITIZEN'S editor.

The roof of J. T. Rilee's summer kitchen caught fire Monday afternoon from a spark, but was put out with little or no damage.

Two potatoes, one weighing 5 lbs. and 4 1/2 oz. and the other 4 lbs. and 3 1/2 oz. were taken from one hill in T. B. Croxton's patch last week.

Mrs. F. A. Gunby is indisposed. J. C. Brewington and W. W. Willey, who have been housed for several weeks with rheumatism, are moving about.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lowery have moved from Warsaw here to reside and are occupying J. W. Hundley's house. Harry Broadus has also moved here from Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie E. Segar, of lower Middlesex, and Dr. J. B. Broadus, of Gloucester, were here Tuesday, callers at Dr. Oliver's rooms and the CITIZEN office.

Capt. B. L. Willing, Mr. and Mrs. Irving R. Messick, Miss Pauline C. Long and S. P. Simmons, Jr., spent several days in Salisbury and Crisfield the past week.

Dr. Geo. H. Oliver expects to leave today to represent Rappahannock Baptist Association in the first convention of the Layman's Missionary Movement in Richmond from October 23rd to 26th.

Dr. F. W. Lewis, of Wheaton, Division Superintendent, and Dr. W. M. Kirk, of White Stone, trustee, visited the High School here Wednesday. They also visited the other schools in this district this week.

The skating rink at this place will hereafter be open only three nights a week—Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. W. T. Barnett succeeded Geo. Anderton as manager, the latter attending school this session.

Messdames S. B. Hughes, Geo. StC. Smith, O. R. Hopkins, W. L. Messick, W. McDonald Lee, of this place, and Fannie Belle Adams, of White Stone, are attending the Woman's Foreign Missionary meeting at Onancock this week.

Late arrivals at Irvington Beach: T. Jerome Downing, R. A. Ayers and wife, A. C. Fitzhugh, Jr., Judge Ewell, L. M. Phipps, Capt. Wm. Henderson, T. M. Hurst, Henry Loker, J. S. Spicer, Ous G. Brooks, Mrs. J. B. Simmons, Mrs. L. C. Alpha, H. E. Collins, Frederick Downing, C. P. Hearn.

Several members of the Legislature and prominent Richmonders were on the Rappahannock yesterday looking into oyster conditions. In the party were Capt. Jas. A. Curtis, Hon. C. E. Wingo, Hon. Morgan T. Mills, N. T. Mosby, O. D. James, G. E. Ruskett, C. L. Corling, W. T. Hancock, Robt. Whitte, G. C. Ruskett, Jr.

Homer Turke, a wholesale fish and oyster dealer of Pittsburg, Pa., spent several days last week with E. W. Long. Mr. Turke visited the rocks and packing houses in this section and expressed himself as impressed with advantages buyers had who made contracts with growers. He said the freshness and wholesomeness was decidedly in favor of the river packed oysters over those packed in cans.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

All persons in White Stone District delinquent for taxes for year 1908 are notified that if same are not paid at once will be referred to levy, advertisement, and sell property to cover indebtedness.

J. R. GRESHAM, Dept. Treas.

SUCCESSFUL SALESMEN.

Geo. N. Anderton, of Tappahannock, is celebrating his 30th anniversary as travelling salesman for the firm of John E. Hurst & Co., of Baltimore. Starting out in 1879 Mr. Anderton has travelled in many parts of the State of Virginia, but for many years has devoted his work to the Rappahannock Valley, making Tappahannock his home. Few men are better known than Mr. A. in this section of Virginia and few more trusted than he. Of late years he has had his son, E. C. Anderton, as assistant in his extensive business, and both father and son are known at every business centre in the counties along the river. Irvington, as is well known, owes to Mr. Anderton the establishment of our skating rink, and this alone ties him to our community. The CITIZEN wishes him in the future a continuation of the success that has attended him thus far.

STIFF JOINTS AND BACKACHE.

"I purchased a 2-cent bottle of Noah's Liniment, and it cured my stiff joints and backache, and I can say it did more good than any pain remedy I ever used. It also cured me in my family for coughs, colds, cramps and colic, always giving immediate relief." Rev. George W. Smith, Abbeville, S. C. Noah's Liniment is an internal and external pain remedy and for sale by all dealers in medicine. If your dealer will not supply you, send 25 cents in stamps for a large bottle. Noah Remedy Co., Richmond, Va.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

The County Anti-Saloon League is in Annual meeting today (Friday) at Lancaster Courthouse.

Miss Flora Stuart, of Newport News, granddaughter of Gen. J. E. B. Stuart, was maid-of-honor to Miss Smith from the First District.

The Danville Bee publishes a fine picture of Judge John C. Ewell, of Bertrand, who was elected Grand Commander of Virginia Encampment of Confederate Veterans.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harwood have left for New York to stay about a week and will be at the Waldorf. Dr. E. B. Claybrook, of Cumberland, Md., was operated on Thursday in St. Luke's hospital, and is improving.—Richmond News Leader.

The VIRGINIA CITIZEN, one of the brightest local papers in the State, has entered upon its 19th volume. While the News and the CITIZEN do not agree on a good many matters, we can assure our neighbor it has our very best wishes and we rejoice in its prosperity.—N. N. News.

Mrs. Frank Simmons, who has been spending several months with her parents here, left today (Thursday) to join her husband at Lillian, Northumberland county. They will leave for Baltimore Saturday, where they will make their future home.—Southside Sentinel.

Messrs. H. C. DeShields, of Tappahannock, and John A. Brockenbrough, of Warsaw, have established direct 'phone communication between the Southside and the Northern Neck by laying a cable across the Rappahannock at Tappahannock ferry. The line is working well and is proving a great convenience.—N. N. News.

The horses which are known here and some of them owned in the county, made an excellent showing in Richmond. In fact every one of them got next to some of the money. S. K. Bedworth won third money in the 2:20 pace, stake race, winning the fifth heat of the race in 2:14; Hannis Boy also won third place in the 2:16 pace. Lady Pilot received fourth money and Virginia Boy third money in their respective races. Virginia Boy was recently sold by his owner, Mr. Hogge, to a North Carolina man.—Mathews Journal.

It's A Top Notch Door.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doors. That's why the American people have chosen Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung Remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, and cures a host of ailments. It heals coughs, inflamed membranes and cures colds. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. Geo. Moore, Black Jack, N. C. writes: "I cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c. 50c. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

SOME PLACES.

Secretary of the Commonwealth D. Q. Eggleston, former State Senator from Charlotte county, died of pneumonia Sunday night, after an illness of only a week.

Henry J. Horner, a very prominent citizen and writer of Westmoreland county, died Thursday of last week at his home at Horners. He was a Confederate Veteran and useful citizen.

Mrs. James Barber died last week in the home of her mother, Mrs. "Nod" Smith, in Fairfield. Mrs. Barber was a native of Northumberland county, but for the last few years had lived in Washington.

Mr. Wm. H. Faulkner, an aged citizen, who resided near Kilmarnock, died Thursday of last week and was buried Saturday at Kilmarnock Baptist church. Rev. F. W. Claybrook conducting the services. Mr. Faulkner was a member of White Marsh M. E. church.

Mrs. W. C. Whaley, of Wicomico Church, died Saturday in a Baltimore hospital, whither she had been taken for operation. Mrs. Whaley was 48 years of age and is survived by her husband, five sons, two brothers, W. T. and M. J. Barnett and two sisters, Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. Fannie Tankling. Mrs. Whaley was a consistent member of the Baptist church. Interment Monday at the Baptist chapel cemetery at Wicomico Church.

CORNER STONE LAYING.

As we go to press, Thursday evening, the impressive ceremonies of a Masonic corner stone laying are in progress at the new Baptist church at Kilmarnock. Judge R. T. W. Duke, Jr., P. at-Grand Master of Masons in Virginia, is the orator of the occasion. Hon. Chas. E. Wingo, of Richmond, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Grand Lodge, and member of the Legislature, is also an honored guest.

RELIGIOUS.

The Northern Neck Baptist Ministers' and Laymen's Institute will be held with Nomin church, Westmoreland county, October 30th and 31st. See program on our first page.

Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, for a number of years general secretary of the board of missions of the Episcopal church of America, was consecrated bishop coadjutor of Virginia in Christ Episcopal church, Alexandria, Wednesday by Bishop Tuttle, of St. Louis, who was assisted by Bishop Gibson, of Virginia and Bishop Randolph, of Southern Virginia. His presenters were the Rt. Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, bishop coadjutor of southern Virginia, and Bishop George W. Peterkin, of West Virginia. The new bishop is a native of Virginia, having been born in Alexandria county in 1857.

TO TEACHERS OF

NORTHUMBERLAND CO. There will be a meeting of all the white teachers of Northumberland county at Heathsville on October the 29th, at 11 a. m., for the purpose of organizing a "County Teachers' Association" and discussing the matter of grading schools and proper course of study for same. All teachers and school trustees are expected to attend. The people generally are cordially invited to be present, to encourage school efforts and show their interest in public education. Respectfully,
F. W. LEWIS,
Division Superintendent Schools.

LANCASTER COUNTY.

WHITE STONE.

Geo. W. Sanders was in Baltimore recently as on business. The Anti-Saloon League meeting here last week was very interesting though not largely attended.

The condition of Capt. Geo. P. Squires is but slightly, if at all, improved at this time. J. T. Minor, Jr., Treasurer of King George, is on a visit to his kinsman, Dr. M. W. Bruce.

A letter from R. M. Sanders states that he and his wife are both ill at the home of the latter's parents in Powhatan county.

MULENECK.

Miss Linnie Wilcox, who has been sick for several weeks, was taken to a Baltimore hospital last week for an operation.

Mrs. R. S. Schools and daughter, Miss Etta Virginia, are visiting Mrs. Geo. E. Lewis here this week.

Harry Ratcliffe, the youngest son of Capt. T. L. Ratcliffe, who has been sick for some time and under the care of Dr. Stewart, is rapidly improving.

W. G. Towles has about completed his oyster-house near Bertrand.

Lloyd Picklin has bought the stock of goods, and opened up store formerly owned by T. D. Picklin, near here.

Jas. Conwell, who has been working here the past two weeks, has returned to his home at Lancaster Courthouse.

Marvin Doggett accidentally broke his arm on Sunday. His father, R. W. Doggett, took him to Dr. Stewart who rendered medical aid, and he is getting along nicely.

R. W. Doggett was appointed by Governor Swanson to represent this county at the Farmers National Congress to be held in Raleigh, N. C., November 3, 1909.

The oyster houses, it is reported, are receiving more orders than they can fill. Reports continue to come in that there are plenty of oysters.

SNOW STORM.

WEEMS.

There will be no preaching here this Sunday morning owing to the pastor expecting to attend the Ministers' and Laymen's meeting at Nomin Grove church. Collin B. Smith has been elected delegate from this place and a number of others also anticipate attending.

S. B. Haydon entertained his Sunday school class of ladies on Friday afternoon last. About twenty were present and the afternoon was pleasantly spent.

Ice cream, lemonade and cake were served at four o'clock, and the class left after wishing their beloved teacher many happy returns of the day, which was his thirty-ninth birthday. After this he will be excused from telling his age.

Mrs. Henry Thomas and little son and Mrs. J. C. Owens spent Thursday as the guests of Mrs. Lev. Bryant in Irvington.

Dr. Kirk was here last week looking after the school. The people of this place certainly should appreciate his efforts towards giving us a good school and ought to do all in their power to ward placing the children of this community on an equal standing with others in regard to an education, without which one loses great opportunities for accomplishing good to others, besides the benefit to themselves.

Tom Ashburn is home for the winter, after having been away several months.

C. L. Marsh had as his guest recently his sister from Northumberland county.

The President of the B. Y. P. U. requests a special grand rally of all the members on next Tuesday night so that all together may prepare for a good winter's work.

(Communicated.)

LANCASTER TO THE FRONT.

MR. EDITOR—Allow me, an "old Vet" who for once more—and probably the last time—attended a reunion, that at Danville last week, tell you how proud he was of Lancaster and the "Outside Row." We old fellows here didn't carry off any honors other than the chief one, but we had a royal good time. No little part of our pleasure was to see the honor accorded this section among the younger generation.

Of course we are "mortally proud" that our Judge Ewell should be honored as Commander of the State Camp, and that leads the procession for honors. That our Lancaster editor should be "jumped from the floor," under his protest, to be made unanimously First-Lieutenant-Commander of the Sons of Veterans was a great tribute to W. McDonald Lee and to our section, but this was nothing more than the expected after his eloquent address of the night before to six thousand people in presenting the Sponsors and Maids.

But not the least that touched our hearts and pride was the praise accorded our Sponsor, Miss Ruby Virginia Smith, and Miss Myrtle Brewington and Maud Leland, two of our choir girls. The First District Sponsor was by many heralded as the most beautiful woman among the thousands, and she was time and again alluded to as the "belle of the ball." The uniformed choir, as usual, was showered with applause and attention, and our Irvington pair were not the least of the bunch by any means.

LANCASTER VETERAN.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

To the memory of little Paul Norton. WHEREAS, In the wise dispensation of Providence, God saw fit to so suddenly remove this beautiful little rosy-bud from the ranks of our Sunday school at Wicomico M. P. church, to unfold its pure petals in the Heavenly garden, and bloom throughout the ages of Eternity, therefore be it

Resolved 1st. That while our hearts are filled with sorrow—how sadly we miss his bright face and sweet voice—we know he is "Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on his gentle breast."

Resolved 2nd. That we extend our deep sympathy to his mother, sisters and brothers, and commend them to God.

Resolved 3rd. That these resolutions be published in the N. N. News and CITIZEN, and a copy sent his family.

MRS. NANNIE STEGEMAN,
MISS LOTTIE SNOW,
MISS LILLIAN MYERS.

GOOD ROAD MOVEMENT.

FOR LANCASTER.

Work to Begin on Macadam Road At Once.

SPECIAL TO THE VIRGINIA CITIZEN, THURSDAY.—Assistant Road Commissioner from Richmond is in the county this week and appeared before the Board of Supervisors at Lancaster Courthouse Wednesday, which had already decided to take advantage of the State appropriation and contribute a like sum to permanent highway improvement. The State Commissioner has arranged to have material and equipment in place and ready to start work by November 1st. The piece of macadam road to be built will begin at a point below Kilmarnock on the White Stone road and extend to a point beyond Kamps & Carter's mill.

SOME WEDDINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Old, of Norfolk, have issued cards to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Nash, to Mr. John Stone Stump, Jr., to take place Wednesday evening, November 3rd, in Christ church, Norfolk.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Eleasha Ann Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodward, of Hampton, formerly of Middlesex county, to Mr. C. Vernon Spragley, Wednesday, October 27th, at 6 o'clock in Hampton Baptist church.

On the evening of October 9th, as the day was drawing to a close, a quiet, but impressive marriage was solemnized at St. Georges P. E. church, Baltimore, the Rector, Rev. Thomas Atkinson, officiating. The parties were Miss Cornelia Avalon Palmer and Mr. Charles Edward Kettle. Miss Palmer is the eldest daughter of Mr. J. C. and Mrs. Alverta McCarty Palmer, of Lancaster county, and is niece of Mrs. J. A. Morran, that city. The bride is charming and pretty and will be greatly missed in her home circle. The groom is a successful business man of that city, and stands high in church and community. The bride was handsomely attired in Victoria chiffon broadcloth with hat and gloves to match and carried a white prayer-book and a bouquet of Lillies-of-the-Valley. She was given in marriage by her father. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kettle left for a northern trip. They will reside at 1623 McCulloch street, Baltimore.

Saturday evening, October 16th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kelley, of Irvington, Virginia, was the scene of a quiet and pretty home wedding. When their niece, Miss Una Jeanette Kelley, daughter of the late Robt. J. Kelley, was given in marriage to Mr. R. A. Ayers, of Lynchburg, Va. At 6 o'clock a most sumptuous dinner was charmingly served the bride and groom and immediate relatives; the bride-elect being handsomely gowned in a princess of Windsor messaline with gold trimming while the groom wore conventional black. Immediately after dinner the bride donned a most becoming tailored suit of dark blue chiffon broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match. Promptly at 7:30 from the parlor, tastefully decorated in ferns and golden red, the piano, played by Miss Genevieve Pinkard, sent forth the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, announcing the approach of the bridal party. First came little Miss Daina Conway and Master Campbell Kelley, cousins of the bride, who held the golden rod ribbons forming an aisle through which passed the attendants—Misses Lily Kelley, maid of honor, pink point de esprit over tulle, Enid Kelley, and Grace Hurst, white Paris muslin and lace, Messrs. Robt. J. Kelley, brother of the bride, David and Vivian Kelley, all wearing conventional black with tan gloves. Then followed the bride and groom, who, standing beneath a bell of golden red, while the soft melody of "Always" bounding through the air, plighted their troth in the presence of Rev. W. L. Ware, pastor of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony, the bridal party drove to Irvington where Mr. and Mrs. Ayers took the steamer for Norfolk. From there they will visit the groom's parents in Bedford City, Va., and then proceed to Lynchburg where they will make their future home. This happy couple has the good wishes of the many friends of the bride throughout the Northern Neck, she being one of Northumberland's finest and most accomplished daughters. Mr. Ayers is a rising young business man of Lynchburg, Va., and near relative of the late Dr. Henry Jeter, a Baptist minister who was well known in this section.

LOCKLIES.

J. C. Mercer, who was paralyzed about four weeks ago, is still in a very critical condition.

We are glad to report T. J. Stiff, who has been very sick, as much better and able to be up in his room. His daughters, Misses Alice and Salome, have returned to their posts of duty as teachers in the High schools at Heathsville and Wicomico Church. His son, Dr. V. E. Stiff, of Honaker, Va., also returned home last Saturday.

Miss Pauline Ewell, who had a very severe spell of appendicitis last week, we are glad to report much better.

Protracted meetings are in progress at the chapel at Wake this week. Rev. G. Y. Bradley, of Essex, is assisting Pastor Goodwin.

Oyster business is beginning to look up considerably.

Dr. J. E. Broadus, of Gloucester, is on a visit to A. E. Segar.

The firm of J. W. Topping & Co. has been reorganized. J. Wm. Daniel becoming a member. It will hereafter be known as Topping, Daniel & Co.

Mr. Norris, of upper Lancaster, who has been clerking for J. N. Hart, of Lot, for several years has gone in business for himself at L. K. Thrift's old stand near Locust Hill.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Ella Brown and her mother, Hayne Fitzhugh, were confined in Warsaw jail, charged with the murder of Joe Brown, husband of the former. While returning from an entertainment at Mulberry church, Joe Brown was shot a deadly blow with a half rail, his skull being crushed. At the coroner's inquest Ella Brown charged that her mother did the killing. The parties are all colored.

NORTHUMBERLAND CO.

MISKIN.

Mrs. T. T. Lewis and children, of visited the former's sister, Mrs. L. W. Anderson, Sunday.

Miss Allie Humphreys, of Fairfield, visited Miss Annie May Fulin Sunday.

BARNES STORE.

(Too late for last issue.)

Mrs. W. C. Barnes and daughter, Ruth, are visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. Clara Eichelberger and daughter, Marie, have returned to their home in Baltimore, after spending sometime with Mrs. Mary Barnes.

Dr. A. J. Gulick, our popular dentist, is kept busy.

Carroll Hazard, formerly of this place, but now located in Norfolk, reports business unusually good.

Miss Lizzie Anderson, of Heathsville, began her school at this place Monday.

Miss Corinne Hazard is very ill at this writing.

Mrs. H. D. Baye, of Cawart, is spending sometime at her parents home.

SUNNYBANK.

C. C. Hammonk and family have moved in their new house, which has just been completed.

Miss Ella Haynie, of Tibbitha, spent several days with Miss Lillie Miller, at Ophelia, recently.

Mrs. A. B. Eskridge and son, Ralph, spent Sunday with the lady's sister, Mrs. William Hall, at Lillian.

The public school at Ophelia is being taught by Mrs. Judith Harding.

The B. S. and E. Academy opened October 11th, with Miss Annie Hall, of Middlesex, as teacher again this session.

J. H. Brown and family have moved to Baltimore, where they expect to make their future home.

Mrs. Dr. Oglesby, of Tangier, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. J. T. Crockett, recently. She was accompanied home by her niece, Miss Amanda Crockett.

LIVING IN GLASS HOUSES.

In the primary, nearly 74,000 Democratic votes were cast. Of this number, Mr. Tucker received over $4,000, and Judge Mack received over $9,000. Could there have been a fairer method of deciding between two candidates in the same party? Where is the "Office-holding trust" in this procedure of the Democratic party?

But what about the Republican method of selecting candidates? Have Republican voters of the State had an opportunity to express their wishes as to who shall lead them in the present political contest? How many Republican voters were given an opportunity to declare that they desired Capt. Kent to be their candidate for Governor? Indeed it is pertinent to ask whether the Republican convention in Newport News represented the rank and file of the Republican party of the State.

Who were the leaders in that Newport News convention? Who dictated the nominees? Let us call the roll of some of these gentlemen:

There was C. B. Slomp, holding a Federal office; there was L. P. Summers, collector of internal Revenue, a Federal officer; P. H. McCull, assistant postmaster at Lynchburg; a Federal officer; Capt. W. P. Kent, consul to mosquito bitten Guatemala, a Federal office holder; Floyd Hughes, collector of the port of Norfolk, a Federal office holder; Judge L. L. Lewis, United States District Attorney, a Federal office holder; Morgan Treat, United States Marshall, a Federal office holder; C. Lee Moore, United States District Attorney, a Federal office holder; Col. S. Brown Allen, United States Marshall, a Federal office holder; Postmaster R. A. Fullsailer, of Staunton, a Federal office holder; and many others that we might mention.

How is this for an office holders' trust? Does it sound well coming from this array of Federal office holders? If there ever was an occasion when a man should take the beam out of his own eye before condemning the mote in another's eye, this is the one.

An office holders' trust—God save the mark.—Danville Register.

TAFT IN MEXICO.

President Taft, who has been making the grand tour, and speaking in sundry places West and South, trying to make plain the paradox that he was for a lower tariff but approved the Payne-Aldrich bill, met, whilst "Away down South in Dixie" and on the borders of Mexico, the President of that land of promise. The meeting was said to have been cordial, but whether the casual remark once attributed by the governor of South Carolina to the Executive of the Old North State as to the vast interval between treats, was used on this occasion, reports are not clear. Incidentally Mr. Taft is said to have violated technically the Constitution by going over into Mexico, but then "between friends the Constitution," etc.

JUDGE WILLIAMS

SENDS SHARP REPLY.

Judge Sam. W. Williams, who threw an ink-stand at Judge Sanders, of West Virginia, for calling him (Williams) a liar, and who has been prosecuted in court of Sanders' State, sent a fiery reply to the court, stating that he will be present to defend himself. Those who know Williams feel sure that the defence he will make will be no apology but a manly rejoinder. The whole case is evidently only an attempt by Republicans to worry the Judge in the midst of an active campaign.

KENT'S "SPEECH"

AT HEATHSVILLE.

Stories of Addresses Delivered by Candidate When He Wasn't There.

REPUBLICANS FAKE PUBLIC.

(Richmond Times-Dispatch.)

Much amusement was created in Richmond by the appearance in some of the Virginia papers of an alleged dispatch from Heathsville, Northumberland county, telling of Capt. Kent's speech there on Monday. The story goes on to say that the Republican candidate deeply impressed his audience with his "very able and positive reply to the claims of Governor Swanson." It is further said that "the impression seemed to be general that the Governor would have to come along new lines if he should venture to again appear in defense of the record of his party."

The point is that Capt. Kent spent Monday in Richmond receiving medical attention for throat trouble, and did not go to Heathsville at all, being forced to break his engagement there. The delighted public is further told that "the meeting was a representative one" and that it "brought men of all parties from all sections of the county."

How the Republican nominee could so vigorously present his arguments at the distance from Richmond to Heathsville is not explained.

HARRY WILLIAM BURRUS.

A Memorial Tribute to Her Husband By Mrs. Mary Scheer Burrus.

Having numerous calls for copies of papers containing the tributes to her husband which have appeared from time to time, Mrs. Burrus has published these in book form with her own tribute. Strong Christian character is always at a premium, and the memoirs of such a life as Harry W. Burrus' should be preserved that many may read, and as they read, be led to loftier planes of living. Especially for boys and any young men who feel a call to the ministry of the Gospel is this volume prepared.
